About Our Speaker

Iain Dale is the undisputed master of Conservative political blogging. His blog 'Iain Dale's Diary' is read by over a million people each year! It combines extraordinary political insight with wit, warmth and no-nonsense opinion.

Iain regularly appears on television programmes such as Newsnight, Andrew Marr's Sunday morning show and a range of other political television and radio programmes.

Iain has spent almost his entire working life in politics, having worked with numerous MPs.

He ran David Davis's unsuccessful leadership campaign, stood for election himself in 2005 and is currently hoping to become a Prospective Parliamentary Candidate in the coming General Election.

Iain is a highly sought after speaker - so don't delay book your tickets as soon as possible!!
